

AQUARIUS

Aquarius, named for the cupbearer to the Gods of Ancient Greece, is a lush decorative marble tile in two parts. The primary field tile is carved from marble, its surface seeming to flow in a smooth dimensional wave adorned with etched organic line work. The decorative panel stills the field tile's wave, with a smooth border around a flat rendition of the same etching. The combined tiles create a pattern that evokes rippling falls of ornate drapery or encased flowing swells of water. The 24" x 24" field tile and 8" x 24" deco tile can be used alone, or in concert. Made in Italy.
